

LIBRARY SUBJECT GUIDE – HISPANIC STUDIES

This subject guide consists of a list of selected resources on Hispanic Studies available in the Catawba Valley Community College Library and on the Internet. Some of the resources listed may also be found in other libraries. Therefore, students may choose to use this guide in their library of choice.

Internet Resources

The Internet contains a vast amount of scholarly information on the topic of Hispanic Studies. However, information found on the Internet is not always reliable. Patrons will need to use Internet evaluation guidelines when determining the most appropriate sources to use for scholarly research. As with all research, patrons will need to use their critical thinking skills to determine the quality of the material.

Below is a brief list of examples of Hispanic Studies resources available on the Internet:

Article Databases

Many journals are available via NC LIVE at <http://www.nclive.org>. Library patrons accessing NC LIVE off-campus must use a password available from the CVCC Library circulation desk or by phone at extension 4229.

CVCC Library staff are available for assistance in locating journal articles in NC LIVE. NC LIVE provides North Carolina residents and students with access to high quality information – searchable collections of magazine, newspaper, and journal articles, electronic books, historical materials, maps, and much more – covering a wide range of topics (North Carolina Libraries for Virtual Education, 2009).

Books

Books that discuss Hispanic life, history, and culture can be found in the Circulating and Reference Collections of the CVCC Library. Books are listed in the library catalog which may be searched online in the Library or via the Library's homepage at <http://www.cvcc.edu/Resources/Library/>.

The CVCC Library also provides electronic access to a number of Hispanic Studies books. These e-books are listed in NC LIVE at <<http://www.nclive.org/>>. Please see library staff for assistance in using NC LIVE.

The following list represents materials available in the CVCC collections. The list includes books and audiovisual materials. Items listed are arranged in Call Number order according to the Library of Congress Classification System. Please see a Library staff member if you have any questions about the Library of Congress system.
