

The College's curriculum personnel, in partnership with the administration, ensure the overall effectiveness of the educational programs. Additionally, curriculum personnel are involved in the College's decision-making processes in the following ways:

1. Have primary responsibility for the content, quality and effectiveness of the curriculum.
2. Participate in program/division level decisions and activities.
3. Participate in College committees based on the President or designee's appointment.
4. Participate in an advisory or governance body (e.g., President's Council or Employee Senate), which is designed to provide broad-based participation in the College's planning process, educational issues and other related issues.
